The Standing Committee shall examine and decide all excuses for the breach of these By-Laws, and transact generally the financial concerns of the Encampment.

Reports and Expenses of Committees.

SECT. 2.—All Committees, except the Standing Committee, shall report their doings at the meeting next after their appointment. The expenses of all Committees shall be defrayed by the Encampment.

ARTICLE V.

CANDIDATES FOR THE ORDERS.

Terms of the Orders.

SECT. 1.—Every candidate for the Orders shall make application in writing, stating his residence and occupation, and enclosing the fee of fifty dollars, accompanied by a certificate from three Royal Arch Masons, certifying that he has regularly received the degree of Royal Arch Mason and appendant degrees, and is of good moral character and respectability. Every application shall be referred to a Committee, and no ballot shall be taken until a majority of said Committee shall have reported. He shall stand proposed from one meeting to another, being not less than fourteen days intervening (unless in case of emergency a dispensation be obtained); and, before a ballot shall be taken, he shall satisfy a Committee respecting his knowledge and proficiency in the preceding Degrees, and the unanimous vote of the members present only shall admit him. If not accepted, the fee shall be returned. In no case shall the Committee report on a candidate for the Orders, until his written application, in due form, with the fee, is in the hands of the Recorder; and no ballot shall be taken upon the application of a candidate unless his name shall have been inserted in the notification for the meeting at which the balloting takes place.

Expenses of Special Meetings.

SECT. 2.—When a special Encampment shall be called at the request of a candidate for the purpose of receiving the Orders, he shall defray the expenses, or such of them as the Standing Committee shall think proper, in addition to the usual fees.

ARTICLE VI.

Uniform of Knights Templars.

The uniform of the Order of Knights Templars, as established by the General Grand Encampment, is a black coat, waistcoat, and breeches or pantaloons, and boots; a cocked hat, black cockade, and black feather; a sword, sash, and apron, decorated agreeably to the usage of the Order. And it shall be the duty of every member to provide himself with the said uniform as soon as convenient.

"It shall be the duty of every Sir Knight Member of this Encampment to wear his regalia when present in the Encampment, and no Sir Knight shall be permitted to vote or speak on any question before the Encampment unless in full regalia.

"Provided, however, that this By-Law shall not apply to any member who may have passed the age of sixty years, or who has for twenty years been a member of this Encampment, or should offer a satisfactory excuse to the most Eminent Grand Commander for the omission."

N. B. By the regulations adopted May 21, 1851, no person will be admitted into the line unless in Full Uniform and Regalia; viz., black dress Coat; black Pants; black Vest; black Stock; Chapeau, with black Feather; buff Gauntlets and Sword, Sash and Apron, decorated agreeably to the usage of the Order.

Standing Vote.

"Voted unanimously that the Armorer be directed not to loan any of the Regalia belonging to the members of this Encampment, without their written order authorizing him so to do."

These By-Laws shall not be altered or repealed until reported, by a Committee chosen for that purpose, at a previous meeting; nor without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. The Encampment shall be formed precisely at the time appointed by the Grand Commander, and shall be disbanded at or before ten o'clock, P.M., unless business require a later attendance.
2. All debates shall be determined by a majority of the members present.
3. No member shall interrupt another while speaking, nor shall be permitted to speak more than twice upon the same question, except to explain.
4. Should disputes of any kind unhappily arise among the members, it shall be the duty of the Grand Commander, upon application of the party aggrieved, or any three of the members, forthwith to convene the Knights; and, after a patient and impartial investigation of the cause of complaint, the determination of the Knights present shall be decisive, the Grand Commander having in all cases the casting vote.

5. Order is heaven's first law, and no society can exist without a due observance of it; the orders, therefore, of the Grand Commander shall be implicitly obeyed. He shall be addressed by the Knights standing, uncovered, and by the title of Most Eminent.

6. The Knights shall address each other by the title "Brother Knight" or "Sir," and shall observe, on all occasions, the most kind and courteous behavior towards each other.

Boston Encampment.

THE BOSTON ENCAMPMENT OF KNIGHTS TEMPLARS was founded in 1806, by members of a Council of Knights of the Red Cross, which was commenced in 1802.

Eight hundred and twelve have been created Knights in the Boston Encampment. Among these are to be numbered very many of the most active and respectable among Freemasons. In the "dark hour," the little band of that day well sustained the whole institution in this State; and the "Protest" of six thousand good men and true, which did more than any thing else but a good Providence to disabuse the public, emanated from this Body: the production of one, who, widely known in Masonry, still continues to diffuse our light, and shed our kindly influences.

An Encampment at Lowell has been formed mostly by those who had received their Orders and were members with the Boston Encampment; and the De Molay and St. Bernard Encampments of this city were founded by those who were also of that "household," and were among its best and most loved. They have carried the good seed, which has brought forth abundantly; and our sister associations of Knights, like the parent, are in the full tide of successful operation.

The Boston Encampment (by far the most numerous body of Knights Templars in Massachusetts; and we are not aware of a larger number throughout the United States), has now about four hundred members. There have been, since its organization in 1806, nineteen Grand Commanders, twelve of whom now survive. Henry Fowle presided nearly twenty-five years. The following is a Copy of the Chapter.

THOMAS S. WEBB	Gen. Grand Master.
HENRY FOWLE	Grand Generalissimo.
JONATHAN GAGE	Grand Capt. General.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:—

The United States General Grand Encampment of Knights of the Red Cross, Knights Templars, and Knights of Malta, convened and assembled in the town of Providence, in the State of Rhode Island, on the third day of March, Anno Domini, 1806,

SEND GREETING:

WHEREAS, a petition has been presented to this Grand Encampment, from HENRY FOWLE, SAMUEL BILLINGS, BENJAMIN SMITH, JOSHUA EATON, THOMAS JACKSON, ANDREW SIGOURNEY, EDWARD HORSMAN, and BENJAMIN HURD, Jun., residents of the town of Boston and its vicinity, in the State of Massachusetts, all true and courteous Knights of the Red Cross, Knights Templars, and Knights of Malta, stating that they have heretofore assembled together, as was the custom of the Knights previous to the establishment of the General Grand Encampment, and exercised the privilege of forming and opening an occasional Council of Knights of the Red Cross, and Encampment of Knights Templars and of Malta, for the benefit of the Institution and its members; but being deeply impressed with a sense of the necessity and importance of discipline and subordination, and persuaded, that, in order to support the honor and dignity of the institution, it is essentially necessary that there should be an acknowledged head and tribunal of superior authority, to protect their rights and privileges, and to redress their wrongs and injuries,—they therefore pray for a Charter of Recognition, extending and confirming unto them the rights and privileges of a regularly constituted Encampment.

NOW BE IT KNOWN, That we, the General Grand Encampment aforesaid, considering that the interest of the institution will be promoted by granting the prayer of the said petition, have authorized and empowered, and do by these presents authorize and empower, the said HENRY FOWLE and his associates, aforesigned, to form, open, and hold a regular and constitutional Encampment of the valiant and magnanimous Orders of Knights of the Red Cross, Knights Templars, and Knights of Malta of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, by the name, style, and title of the Boston Encampment, No. 2; to confer these Orders, respectively, upon tried and worthy candidates; to make by-laws and ordinances for their own government; to admit members; and to do and transact all such matters and things as are lawful and proper to be done and transacted in such an assembly. And, furthermore, we do hereby declare the rank and precedence of the said Boston Encampment, in the Grand Encampment and elsewhere, to be the second from us; and from said Boston Encampment we do nominate and appoint

Sir HENRY FOWLE to be the first Grand Master.

Sir SAMUEL BILLINGS to be the first Generalissimo.

Sir BENJAMIN SMITH to be the first Capt. General.

Sir JOSHUA EATON to be the first Senior Warden.

Sir THOMAS JACKSON to be the first Junior Warden.

Sir ANDREW SIGOURNEY to be the first Treasurer.

Sir EDWARD HORSMAN to be the first Recorder.

And we do hereby enjoin it on the said Boston Encampment to see that these officers are regular in their attendance upon the assemblies of the General Grand Encampment, in person or by proxy; to be punctual in making their returns to the Grand Recorder, and the payment of their dues to the Grand Treasurer; and to conform in all their doings to the Constitution and the Edicts of the General Grand Encampment: otherwise, this Charter and the privileges hereby granted, to cease, and to be of no further effect.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF we have hereunto set our hands, and caused the seal of the General Grand Encampment to be hereunto annexed, the day and year above written.

Attest,

OTIS AMMIDON,
